Why work with ij?

We are committed to delivering high quality legal assistance

Member firms are committed to delivering high quality legal assistance and excellent client services. Each prospective member is submitted to a strict assessment of professionalism and competence. Each member has a profound knowledge of local legislation, business and politics.

We are experienced in cross-border enterprise transactions ij INTERNATIONAL JURISTS members are experienced in nearly all manner of cross-border business and enterprise transactions. They are used to working internationally and are able to assist and deal with complex multi-jurisdictional issues. All members serve their international clients, not only in their own language, but also in English and often in a second foreign language.

We strive to go beyond the "network mentality"

Our members are connected personally. Through our system of monthly Management Committee teleconferences and our annual Management Committee meeting, we share, discuss and exchange ideas. This interaction culminates in our Annual General Meeting, a multi-day event, hosted by one of our member firms in their home country. These events are invaluable, as they offer us the chance to recap the year behind us and to plan the year ahead, together.

34 countries, 37 firms, 1350 legal professionals

Today we can offer you direct support in:

Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Dominican Republic, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Mexico, the Netherlands, Norway, Peru, Poland, Romania, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, the United Kingdom and the United States.

Through our associations, we can also assist you in finding legal professionals in most other economically prominent countries around the globe.

Areas of expertise

The members of ij INTERNATIONAL JURISTS deliver advice and assistance in a broad range of legal areas.

While member firms each have their own particular areas of expertise, all are able to provide advice on general commercial, corporate, property and private law matters, both contentious and non-contentious.

Particular specialist areas include:

agriculture and pharmaceuticals • banking and finance • commercial law • consumer law corporate law • cross border transactions • employment and labor law • environmental law family law • franchising • insolvency • intellectual property • international business law
IT and telecoms • litigation and arbitration • media and entertainment personal injury • product licensing • property development • real estate start-up law • technology law • transport • trusts and estate planning

In order to learn more about the specialized legal services offered by individual member firms, you may view the websites of members, available through the links provided under "our network". Alternatively, feel free to contact members either directly or through the ij INTERNATIONAL JURISTS secretary, using the contact details provided.
